

Document list – residence permit for children, cf. the Immigration Act section 42

Name:

Date of birth:

Citizenship:

Underneath is a list of the documents you need to submit when you apply for family immigration. Some of the documents should be submitted by you the applicant and others by your sponsor. Mark every submitted document in the check list, fill out the questionnaire and sign the last page. You as the applicant should then submit this checklist, the questionnaire and all the relevant documents at the local police station or a Foreign Service Mission.

You must present the original documents when you apply

You must show your passport and all documents in their original form at the Foreign Service Mission or the police station.

Original documents issued by your country's authorities must be certified by the proper authority

- Documents from countries where we demand an apostille stamp. Documents from countries that have ratified the Hague Convention (see list of countries here: http://www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=states.listing), must have an apostille stamp before you submit your documents to the Foreign Service Mission or the police.
- Documents from countries where we demand legalisation. Documents from countries that have not signed the Hague Convention must be legalised by the foreign authority of the country where the document has been issued. Legalisation means that the foreign authority in the issuing country by endorsement has confirmed that the document is signed/issued by the proper authority.

If you are unsure of which rule applies to you, please contact the Norwegian embassy or consulate in the country where you will submit your application.

Bring certified copies of the original documents and translations

The copies must be certified either by a proper authority or a notary public. Documents in languages other than Norwegian, English, German, Spanish or French must be translated into Norwegian or English by an authorised/certified translator. It must be stated on the translation who translated the document and when.

Application papers:

- If you applied through the application portal online, you have to enclose the cover letter (the attachment you received via e-mail when you registered your application). If you cannot apply online, you have to enclose the application form.
- Two new/recent passport size photos
- A filled out and signed document list (this list)

Identity documents for the applicant:

- Passport – copy of all used pages
- Birth certificate

- Household Registration / family book
- For an applicant who is a refugee staying in another country than the one he or she is a citizen of: registration card from UNHCR or equivalent card/letter from the authorities in the country of residence confirming that the applicant is a refugee or asylum seeker. If applicable a document confirming that the applicant is granted asylum in the country.
- If applicable, a written explanation as to why the applicant cannot present one or more of the above mentioned documents

Documentation on your relationship:

- Copy of the sponsor's passport – all used pages

If only one of the parents live or will be living in Norway:

- Documentation from an official authority stating who has parental responsibility for the child
- If the parents have joint parental responsibility* the other parent must give his or her consent to the application
- Formal requirements of such consent:* In principle, the other parent must appear in person at the Foreign Service mission with proof of his/her identity and sign the application. Alternatively, a written consent signed and confirmed by a Notary Public or other corresponding official body may be presented by the parent
- If the other parent is deceased a death certificate must be enclosed
- A statement regarding the applicant's situation of care in country of residence with information about who is the applicant's current care provider, attached with a copy of the care providers proof of identity
- If applicable, a written explanation as to why the applicant cannot present any or some of the above documents

If the child is adopted

- Documentation on adoption from relevant the authorities in the child's country of origin
- If the child is adopted after the sponsor settled in Norway: Approval of the adoption from Norwegian Directorate for Children, Youth and Family Affairs in Norway
- If applicable, a written explanation as to why the applicant cannot present any or some of the above documents

Subsistence documentation:

Financial support from the reference person's spouse or cohabitant

As a general rule the reference person in Norway must meet the income requirement. If the reference person does not have sufficient income, the reference person's spouse or cohabitant may fulfill the requirement.

In such cases the reference person's spouse or cohabitant must be able to document that he or she meets the income requirement. The spouse or cohabitant must also submit a written statement declaring that he or she will support the applicant.

You must submit the documentation and the written statement with the application.

If the sponsor works:

- Contract of employment or a confirmation from the employer. In the contract/confirmation it must be clear how long the employment will last and the scope (full time or part-time) of the employment. If your work is temporary, you should enclose a confirmation from your employer if it is possible to prolong your contract.

- The three most recent payslips
- The latest tax settlement notice
- If the sponsor has been a student at the university or university college level, please enclose documentation of the sponsor having accumulated at least 60 credits (or the equivalent) in the year of the latest tax settlement notice.
